FRANKENSTEIN

WORLD PREMIERE of a HORROR STORY written by Roxanne Ray

September 30-October 30, 2011

The thrilling horror story of a young scientist's disastrous attempt at playing God. Appalled by the deformed monster he has created, Victor Frankenstein abandons his innocent, bewildered creation. Friendless and rejected in horror by everyone he meets, the creature becomes increasingly vengeful and bent on finding his creator so he can make a ghastly bargain.

INSPECTING CAROL

A HILARIOUS HOLIDAY COMEDY written by Daniel J. Sullivan

November 25-December 18, 2011

A sidesplitting holiday hit since premiering at the Seattle Rep in 1992, "Inspecting Carol" is part "Noises Off," part "Waiting for Guffman." Almost broke, Soapbox Theatre Company is struggling to mount their annual cash cow, the holiday classic "A Christmas Carol." An inspector from the National Endowment for the Arts is expected any minute. When a young actor is mistaken for the inspector, cast and crew cater to his every whim to try to win their government funding. The result: the most hilarious and disastrous production of "A Christmas Carol" ever.

TBA

A MUSICAL

February 17-March 25, 2012

We are not allowed to announce the name of the musical until we know for sure we have been granted the rights to perform it by the theatrical company that holds those rights. Unfortunately, we have not yet been told whether or not we will receive the rights to perform the show.

A love story about the impossibility of love. Greg really, truly adores his girlfriend, Steph. Unfortunately, he also thinks she has a few physical imperfections, and when he casually mentions them, all hell breaks loose.
